

"Where global dreams begin"

Marina Mou

Selected Branch Manager — Keystone Education, Narsingdi

Date: 18 July 2026

Joining Date: 1 August 2026

Subject: Your official invitation to become Branch Manager, Narsingdi

Dear Marina,

Very soon, when people in Narsingdi hear the name "Keystone Education," one face will come to their mind first. That face will be yours.

This letter is not just a normal job offer. It is bigger than that. It is an announcement: we have chosen you to be the first face of Keystone in Narsingdi.

Please read this letter slowly. This is one of the biggest decisions of your life, and we want you to understand every part of it — why we chose you, what you will earn, what you will learn, and where this road can take you.

In simple words: we want you to lead our new office in Narsingdi. You will help local students go abroad to study, mainly to South Korea. In return, you get a real salary, real commissions, real training, and a real career. Not just a job.

Why You? Why Only You?

We received many applications from Narsingdi. We read every single one carefully. But one name kept coming back to the top of the list, again and again. Yours.

Here is why:

- ✓ You are still a student. You are currently studying at Narsingdi Government College. You understand how local students think, worry, and dream, because you are one of them. This cannot be taught in a training session. It can only be lived.
- ✓ Your IELTS score is 6.5. This is not just a number on a piece of paper. It is proof that a girl from Narsingdi can reach an international standard. You are living proof that it can be done — and soon, hundreds of students will look at you and believe they can do it too.
- ✓ You are applying to Korea yourself. You are not learning this process from a textbook. You are living it, right now. You know the fear of waiting for a visa, and the excitement of getting one step closer. When you talk to a worried student, you will not be guessing how they feel — you will already know.
- ✓ You are a daughter of Narsingdi. Trust in a small town is not something you can buy with advertising. It has to be earned, slowly, over years. You already have it. Your family, your college, your neighbourhood — they already know and trust you.

You are not simply joining us as an employee. You are becoming the face of Keystone in Narsingdi. The way you speak, the way you explain things, the way you treat people — that is how all of Narsingdi will come to know and judge Keystone Education.

Why Now? A Golden Opportunity in Narsingdi

Let's think simply about why so many young people in Bangladesh want to study abroad:

- ✓ The job market at home is shrinking. Every year, hundreds of thousands of students finish university, but there are not enough good jobs waiting for them.

- ✓ Studying abroad usually means working abroad too — and that means more money coming back home to the family.
- ✓ In Korea, students can work part-time jobs while they study, so many can pay their own living costs.
- ✓ Korean tuition fees are often lower than private university fees in Bangladesh — sometimes only USD 2,000–5,000 per semester.
- ✓ Some Korean programs do not even require IELTS before you go. Students can learn English and Korean after they arrive.
- ✓ Every year, thousands of Bangladeshi students move to Korea, Malaysia, and Canada, and this number keeps growing.

Narsingdi is still an untouched goldmine:

- ✓ There are 27 colleges in Narsingdi Upazila alone. Thousands of students want to study abroad, but they simply do not know where to start.
- ✓ There is no dedicated study-abroad consultancy here. Every student who wants help has to travel all the way to Dhaka — extra travel cost and Dhaka agency fees add up to ₳3,00,000 or more.
- ✓ What they need is one local, trustworthy person who speaks their language and truly understands their fears.
- ✓ You already are that person to them. You are their college senior. They already know you, trust you, and will listen to you.
- ✓ One successful student usually brings ten new inquiries. In a small town like Narsingdi, word of mouth is the strongest kind of marketing there is.

Whoever fills this gap will become the name that Narsingdi thinks of first, whenever someone mentions studying abroad. That person is about to be you.

Your Income — Clear, Fair, and Real

We believe that good work deserves good rewards. Your income is built in three simple layers:

Income Layer	What It Means	Amount
Base Salary	A guaranteed amount every month, for your first 2 months	₳10,000–12,000/month
Per Application	Every time you submit a student's application	₳1,000/application
Per Visa	Every time a student's visa is confirmed, you get 10% of the service fee	₳12,000/visa (10% of ₳1,20,000)

Let's Calculate It Together

If you help 2 students get their visa this month:

Income Source	Amount
Base salary	₳12,000
Application fees (5 × ₳1,000)	₳5,000
Visa commission (2 × ₳12,000)	₳24,000
Total monthly income	₳41,000

If you help 3 students:

Income Source	Amount
Base salary	₳12,000
Application fees (6 × ₳1,000)	₳6,000
Visa commission (3 × ₳12,000)	₳36,000
Total monthly income	₳54,000

If you help 5 students:

Income Source	Amount
Base salary	₳12,000
Application fees	₳10,000
Visa commission (5 × ₳12,000)	₳60,000
Total monthly income	₳82,000

Stop for a second. Read that last number again. ₳82,000 — every single month.

Now compare this to normal life in Bangladesh. A fresh university graduate usually earns around ₳15,000–20,000 a month, and often spends a full year just searching for that first job. A student who only finishes HSC and finds an entry-level job in Dhaka usually earns around ₳8,000–10,000 a month.

And you — still a college student, sitting right here in Narsingdi — are already looking at an income that could match, or even beat, an experienced corporate employee's salary in Dhaka.

This is only the beginning. The more skilled you become, the more students you will bring in, and the more you will earn. There is no ceiling on your income here. The sky is the real limit.

A Day in the Life of Branch Manager Marina

Let's make this real. Imagine a normal Tuesday, a few months from now.

You open the small Keystone office in Narsingdi Bazar at 10:00 AM. A message is already waiting on WhatsApp from a student who wants to know about Korean universities. You reply with a smile — you know exactly what to say, because you have been trained for this.

At 11:30 AM, a student and his mother walk in. They are nervous. They have heard stories about agents who cheat people. You calm them down, explain the process step by step, and show them Keystone's real track record. By the time they leave, they trust you completely.

In the afternoon, you make a few calls to students who visited last week. You post something on the Keystone Facebook page about a Korean university's new intake. In the evening, you review two documents that need to go to Dhaka for final checking.

By 6:00 PM, you close the office. Nothing about the day felt like hard labour. It felt like helping people, one conversation at a time, while building your own future, brick by brick.

This is the real, everyday shape of the opportunity in front of you.

More Than a Salary — A Career

This is not just a job. It is a launchpad.

- ✓ Free training — You will learn everything: Korean visa steps, university applications, and documentation. In a short time, you will become a true expert in this field.
- ✓ International connections — You will work directly with Korean universities, agencies, and immigration officers. Your network will grow far beyond Bangladesh.
- ✓ Real business skills — Sales, marketing, customer service, and document management. These skills will help you for your whole life, in any career you choose.
- ✓ Your own office — Your own office in Narsingdi Bazar. You are a Branch Manager, not just an employee.

- ✓ Fast growth — Do well for 2-3 months, and your salary grows. Do even better, and you could open your own new branch.
- ✓ A mentor who has walked this road — Our founder spent 9 years living in Korea. He will personally coach you, every single week.
- ✓ Your own dream moves forward too — You are applying to Korea yourself. This job will make your own application process easier. You will learn and apply what you learn, at the same time.

The career path in front of you:

College Student → Branch Manager, Narsingdi → Senior / Regional Manager,
or Owner of Your Own Branch

And alongside all of it — your own Korea journey keeps moving forward too.

From an ordinary college student to a Branch Manager — in just a few months.

This is not a fantasy. This is real, and it is standing right in front of you now.

Questions You Might Be Asking Yourself

What if I don't find students right away?

That is completely normal, especially in the first few weeks. Your base salary is guaranteed for the first 2 months, so you have time to learn and build trust in the market. We will train you and support you closely during this time.

Do I need experience to do this job?

No. What you need is what you already have: honesty, a willingness to learn, and a real understanding of your own community. We will teach you everything else, step by step.

What if this affects my own studies?

This role is designed to work alongside your college life, not against it. Many daily tasks — talking to students, posting updates, following up by phone — can fit around your class schedule. And since this work is directly related to your own Korea application, it often supports your studies instead of competing with them.

Is this a real, serious job, or just a side task?

It is a real, serious position, with a real title: Branch Manager. You will have your own office, your own responsibilities, and a real, documented income structure.

What happens if I do very well?

Then the road ahead gets even bigger. Strong performers can see their base salary increase, and may even get the opportunity to open and run their own branch elsewhere.

Your Decision

Marina, the decision is yours. But let us say one thing clearly and honestly:

We want you. Narsingdi needs you. And your own dream is calling you too.

If you are ready, just say one word. We will begin your journey with you, starting today.
